

Horizon Power adopted IBM CloudPak for Integration to automate business processes that halved the time to market and saved nearly 40% in development costs.

IBM

By connecting the systems and exchanging data, integration enabled the power provider to improve business process efficiencies and better prepare for the future.

